

Oklahoma: ¡Unidos Se Puede! Program

Brief Site Description:

The Oklahoma State University ¡Unidos Se Puede! Program addresses high immigrant Latino youth school dropout rates by utilizing an evidence-based program to address behavior change related to: career readiness, decision making and problem solving, persistence, goal setting, personal responsibility and conscientiousness by increasing the number of Latino immigrant youth involved in 4-H and who demonstrate knowledge, skills, attitudes and behavior necessary for fulfilling, contributing lives.

SCP Project Director:

Dr. Ronald Cox

SCP Evaluator:

Isaac Washburn

SCP Technology Specialist:

David Shideler

Other (1), include their role:

Carola Munoz; Program Manager

Other (2) include their role:

Success Coaches (FCS Extension Program Assistants)

CYFAR Coach:

First name:

Phillip

Last name:

Ealy

State:

Pennsylvania

Community-based Program Partner(s):

Tulsa Public Schools, Oklahoma State University-Tulsa, Tulsa County Extension, Tulsa Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Camp Fire Green Country, Tulsa Community College

Source URL: <https://cyfar.org/project-site/4454>