

“I mean, you got the first mainstream African-American who is articulate and bright and clean and a nice-looking guy. I mean, that’s a story book, man.”

HOW RACIAL BIASES HAVE INFLUENCED COVERAGE OF THE UKRAINE-RUSSIA WAR

On the BBC, Ukraine's former deputy general prosecutor David Sakvarelidze said the war has been emotional for him because he sees "European people with blue eyes and blond hair being killed — children being killed — every day with Putin's missiles."

“What’s compelling is just looking at them the way they are dressed,” he said. “These are prosperous, middle-class people. These are obviously not refugees trying to get away from areas in the Middle East that are still in a big state of war. These are not people trying to get away from areas in North Africa. They look like any European family that you would live next door to.”

Al Jazeera news anchor Peter Dobbie

“With all due respect, this not a place like Iraq or Afghanistan that has seen conflict raging for decades. This is a relatively civilized, relatively European ... city where you wouldn’t expect that or hope that it’s not going to happen.”

On CBS News, senior correspondent Charlie 'Agata
—reporting from Kyiv

“These are not refugees from Syria, these are refugees from Ukraine
... they’re Christian, they’re white.

On NBC, correspondent Kelly Cobiella
