

SELF-EFFICACY WITH COMPUTERS (MIDDLE AND HIGH SCHOOL)

Directions: Tell us how often the following statements apply to you.

#	Item	0 Never/rarely true	1 Sometimes true	2 Frequently true	3 Almost always true
1.	It is easy to use the computer to look up things for school.
2.	It is easy to use the computer to do reports for school.
3.	It is easy to use the computer to do presentations for school.
4.	It is easy to use the computer to work with other students on class assignments.
5.	I am good at using the computer to look things up for school.
6.	I am good at using the computer to do reports for school.
7.	I am good at using the computer to do presentations for school.
8.	I am good at using the computer to work with other students on class assignments.
9.	I ask the teacher questions about school work on the computer.
10.	My teacher thinks I know a lot about the computer.
11.	Other kids think I know a lot about the computer.

#	Item	0 Never/rarely true	1 Sometimes true	2 Frequently true	3 Almost always true
12.	People in my family think I know a lot about the computer.
13.	I think I know a lot about the computer.

Replicates the Self-Efficacy with Computers Scale from Students as Agents of Change Survey B (Rockman).